Prayer for Preparation and Illumination

Scripture — Luke 22:7–16 — p.898

Prayer for the Meal and the Proclamation of the Word

Sharing the Meal

How have you especially felt the close presence of God recently?
What is it you love about this community?
What are some examples of our church living out our role as the body of Christ?
What do you suppose was on the disciple's minds during the last supper?
How have you seen love risked when it was uncomfortable or challenging?
Where have you seen love prevail when it seemed unlikely or impossible?

Hymn of Reflection

#527 Eat This Bread

Scripture During the Meal — John 13:2b–17, 34–35 — p. 918

The Meal Continues

Hymn of Reflection — #527 Eat This Bread

Communion

Scripture of Institution — Luke 22:17–19 — p.898

Blessing

As we share the bread, a common and ordinary piece of bread appointed to a holy use; with joy, eat and remember Christ's body broken for us. May you feel the grief of our sin turned to the joy of divine forgiveness. Let us take and eat.

Declaration of Faith

The bread which we break is the communion of the body of Christ.

Scripture — Luke 22:20–23 — p. 898

Blessing

As we share the cup of remembrance; with joy, drink and remember Christ's blood poured out for us. May you feel the anguish of separation from God turned to the joy of restoration.

Declaration of Faith

The cup which we bless is the communion of the new covenant in Christ's blood.

Hymn of Reflection — #527 Eat This Bread

Scripture — John 15:9–17 — p. 920

Closing Hymn — p.769 For Everyone Born →
Cantors sing verse 1 solo then congregation joins verses 2-5 — (music on back page)

Guided Breath Meditation — "As I have love you, Love one another."
